

Arts and Culture

Discover a surprising wealth of art treasures in the Region. Enjoy the world's largest collection of Pre-Raphaelite paintings. See the prestigious Garman Ryan collection. Many work by artists as diverse as William Blake, Van Gogh and Picasso await the visitor. Or take in the largest collection of contemporary Pop Art outside London. It's all here.

Over 200 museums and art galleries offer interest for all tastes and ages. Opportunities abound to dip back into the past, to investigate the present or even to explore what tomorrow might bring.

- * The Good Britain Guide 2004 declared the Barber Institute of Fine Arts the 'Gallery of the Year'
- * The largest collection of Pre-Raphaelite works in the world is housed in the Birmingham Museum & Art Gallery
- * 80 years of aviation history can be seen through one of the largest collections in the UK at the Royal Air Force Museum in Cosford
- * The New Art Gallery Walsall is an exciting and architecturally outstanding multimillion-pound landmark building. It is home to the prestigious Garman Ryan collection as well as works by artists as diverse as William Blake, Van Gogh and Picasso
- * With the largest collection of contemporary Pop Art outside London, you simply must visit Wolverhampton Art Gallery
- * Britain's brewing capital is a fitting place to find the Museum of Brewing. Get a real taste of times gone by in Burton-on-Trent
- * The National Motorcycle Museum has long been recognised as the finest and largest motorcycle museum in the world